

Florida's Historic Mega Mansions

Date/Time: Saturday, January 20, 2024 @ 10:00 am

Place: Anderson-Price Building, 42 North Beach Street, Ormond Beach, FL 32174

Presented By: Zach Zacharias

Event Type: In-Person

Free Admission: (Open to the Public)

Florida is home to some of the most amazing historic mansions in the United States. Many of these homes were built by the mega industrialists who found Florida as their winter playground. All of the homes are open to the public for tours as museums and it is a great way to discover Florida's history, heritage, and architecture. Learn about the architectural wonders of Viscaya, Stetson Mansion, the Charles Deering Estate, the John and Mable Ringling Estate and more.

Zach Zacharias is a Florida Native born and raised in Miami and holds degrees from Florida State University in Communications, University of Central Florida in American History and a Master's in Education from Nova South Eastern University. Zach has been with the Museum of Arts and Sciences for more than 25 years and is the Senior Curator of Education and Curator of History with a specialty in Florida history, art and paleontology.

Funding for this program was provided through a grant from the Florida Humanities with funds from the National Endowment for the Humanities. Any views, findings, conclusions or recommendations expressed in this program do not necessarily represent those of the Florida Humanities or the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Ormond Beach Historical Society - 2024 Speaker Series Season