

World War II Air Bases and Coast Guard Stations in Northeastern Florida

Date/Time: Saturday, April 6, 2024 @ 10:00 am

Place: Anderson-Price Building, 42 North Beach Street, Ormond Beach, FL 32174

Presented By: Robert Mattson

Event Type: In-Person

Free Admission: (Open to the Public)

This program will provide an overview of the US Navy and US Coast Guard bases/facilities in northeast Florida just prior to and during WW2. A brief history of each facility will be explored along with ships and squadrons based there during the war.

Robert Mattson has been participating in Civil War and World War II living history since 2004. He was initially a member of the USS Ft. Henry Living History Association, and is currently a member of the USS Pawnee (Marine) Guard, and is their only sailor. He researches and portrays Union Civil War and World War II Navy personnel (officers and enlisted seamen). He is the author of the book:

The Civil War Navy in Florida.
